Sample Case #2

Sample Case #2

Opening Scenario:

An 8-year, 10-month-old male has been referred by a dentist for an orthodontic evaluation of permanent tooth eruption. The mother's chief complaint is "My son grinds his teeth at night."

Sample Case #2

Question 1

Sample Case #2

Question 1

Sample Case #2

Question 1

Classification

Domain 1: Data Gathering and Diagnosis

Prompt

Identify all abnormalities evident in the intraoral photographs and the panoramic radiograph.

Model Responses

The board expects a fully proficient response for this question to include ¬¬eight abnormalities and a borderline proficient response to include five.

Sample Case #2

Question 2

Classification

Domain 1: Data Gathering and Diagnosis

Domain 2: Treatment Objectives and Planning

Prompt

What are the potential complications associated with the ankylosis of the mandibular second deciduous molars with further growth and development of the dental arches?

Model Responses

The board expects a fully proficient response for this question to include at least six potential complications and a borderline proficient response to include four or five.